

Week of February 3, 2015

Capital Project Update. The following is an update from this week.

Tech Rooms:

The electrical contractor started the installation of the lights in the tech rooms.

Art Room:

The general contractor installed the millwork. They also sanded and painted the east wall of the Art Room storage. The electrical contractor installed the track lighting. The plumbing contractor installed the sinks and plumbing.

Misc.

The electrical contractor continued work on fire alarm and security wiring. They also installed conduit in the crawl space and control wiring above the ceiling.